

“As a GSO President candidate at Stony Brook University, I am committed to empowering our graduate and Ph.D. community through inclusive advocacy, enhanced development opportunities, and equitable access to resources. My vision extends to securing improved support for all, particularly international students, by ensuring fair and balanced fund allocation for professional and personal growth. This includes a weight-average distribution of reimbursements, promoting fairness, equality, and accessibility in funding for conferences, workshops, and recreational activities.

I pledge to foster a vibrant campus culture through strategic investments in professional development initiatives like Leetcode clubs and job fair transportation support, alongside hosting diverse cultural and sporting events to enrich our community experience. My commitment to inclusivity will see the organization of events that celebrate our rich cultural diversity, offering a platform for every voice to be heard and every student to shine.

By electing me, you’re choosing a leader dedicated to making strategic decisions that will bolster our academic and professional journey and enhance campus life through meaningful engagement and support.

Vote for Progress, Vote for Action, and Vote for A Leader who will tirelessly work for our collective success.”
